

There's a reason why we live in a village.

Quality of Life

The Suffolk County Village Officials Association commissioned a poll earlier this year and here's some of what they found out!

While other municipalities and levels of government have been marred by in-fighting and partisan bickering, Village Boards take a different approach. Working together in a bipartisan manner, they keep service levels high, eliminate wasteful government spending and hold the line on tax increases!

91%

said they were happy with the level of village services.*

66%

said their Village Board works together in a spirit of partnership.*

63%

said their village is being run honestly and efficiently.*

52%

said their Village Taxes are a good deal.*

It's amazing what a little cooperation can accomplish!

Suffolk County Village Officials Association's mission is to inform, support, and advocate on behalf of the 33 villages of Suffolk County. The Executive Board of SCVOA works tirelessly in its commitment to create a strong, effective, cohesive organization that promotes an exchange of ideas and strategies that enable village government to faithfully serve the more than 125,000 Suffolk County village residents.
